Pastor Kent

*"Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ."
(Colossians 3:23-24 ESV)*

There's a mistake we often make in the Christian life. What I'm referring to is our tendency to believe that we serve God only through the ministry of the church. We think that we only serve God by becoming a pastor or missionary. We think that we serve God only by teaching Sunday School or serving on the church council. However, in reality, we serve God in every aspect of our life.

This truth is brought out in the above passage. Paul leads up to this statement by telling us how we're to live as wives, husbands, children, and even slaves. He then tells us that we're to work with all our heart in everything we do. He tells us that, in everything, we are to work with all of our heart, as for the Lord and not for men.

In all of our worldly duties, and in all of our worldly relationships, we are serving God. Others will be blessed in the process, of course. But, ultimately, we are serving him.

Keeping this in mind helps us to work with all of our heart. When we're called to serve someone who's offended us, when we're called to serve someone who's hateful or ungrateful, it gives us the motivation we need. Thoughts of retaliation, thoughts of returning evil with evil, are replaced by a desire to glorify God.

When we're tired, and even when we're struggling with selfishness, it gives us the motivation we need. It takes our focus off of ourselves and places it where it belongs. It causes us to fix our eyes upon the Lord.

This also makes our day-to-day duties seem less monotonous. It turns our duties, which seem less than spiritual, into a response of faith. Doing the dishes becomes a response of faith. Doing the laundry becomes a response of faith. Cleaning the kitchen or the bathroom, paying the bills, mowing the lawn, and making household repairs all become a response of faith. It does so because, in even these small ways, we're serving the Lord.

Martin Luther once said this: "The Christian shoemaker does his duty not by putting little crosses on the shoes, but by making good shoes, because God is interested in good craftsmanship." In other words, we serve God by doing our job well. We glorify him by performing our duties to the best of our ability.

This will be the theme of our upcoming Spiritual Life Meetings. Pastor Jason Gudim, from Minneapolis, will share with us about living out the will of God in our lives. He'll share with us how we serve God through our various vocations. This will also be the theme of our upcoming men's study as we look at a book by Gene Veith (Family Vocation: God's Calling in Marriage, Parenting, and Childhood).

Community Meal

Please plan to join us for worship and Sunday School on the 23rd, as well as for evening sessions on Sunday through Wednesday nights.

The Mission of the WMF of Prince of Peace is to study and share the Good News of Jesus, through word and deed, at home, in our community and throughout the world.

Welcome to a new season of the year. Can't say when the fall weather will start, but the calendar says September! Can you believe it?!?

Our WMF Bible study will meet on Monday, September 17 at 10:30 am and 6:30 pm. We will be on Lesson 8; Daily Hope: Daily Living in the Word. "Forever, O Lord, Your Word is firmly fixed in the Heavens." Psalm 119:89. Please join us even if you have never attended before.

The WMF would like to have a special time for our women to meet Becca, Seth's new wife. We will have more details on this in the near future. Nothing else is in the wind at this time.

It's been a swiftly moving season. Lots of things happening. Most are out of my control. I am so glad that God is in control and hasn't been surprised by anything.

We need to be in prayer for Sunday School teachers for the new school year. Keep Lacey Wenning, our missionary far from home in a strange land, in your prayers. God knows what we need. He wants us to bring these needs and wants to Him. He says ask, seek and knock.

In His love and service,
Judy Tolosky 8702131

I, Darcee, would just like to add...If you are a woman in this congregation – then YOU ARE PART OF WMF! We encourage all of you to participate in our WMF.

Sunday School Corner

Sunday School is rapidly approaching! Sunday School will start September 9th. The kids are ready, the curriculum is ready, but unfortunately the teachers are not ready! Once again, we are in need of teachers. Below is a list of position that are open:

- Co-teacher for
Preschool/Kindergarten
- Two co-teachers for 1st/2nd grades.
- A teacher or two co-teachers for grades 6th-8th.

If you are interested, please contact Angie Wanzek with questions or to volunteer. Our goal every year is to make teaching Sunday School an easy and enjoyable experience. Co-teaching allows you to teach, every other week, every other month or even just half of a year. Please pray and consider helping in this way.

Every year the Christian Education board chooses a mission family or families throughout the year to donate the Sunday School offering to. This year the board has decided to send all Sunday School offering to Lacey Wenning in Central Asia. Every penny donated! Please encourage your kids to donate! We as a board are also going to work hard to teach our kids the value and lesson of giving.

We are excited for a new year of Sunday School and all the lessons God has in store. Remember to pray about teacher and pray that our POP kids will be impacted by the lessons they learn during Sunday School! PS-Watch the mail for the Sunday School Newsletter to kick off the Sunday School Year!

Once again Prince of Peace will collect and pack boxes for Operation Christmas Child. There are a couple of things I wanted to highlight as we once again begin our collection season.

First, we DO NOT NEED shoeboxes. In order to streamline the shipping of boxes overseas, we will once again use boxes provided by OCC.

Second, watch out for our very own OCC Angel Tree. We are all aware how an Angel Tree works. You pick out a tag, purchase the items requested and return it to the proper location. I am going to apply this concept to collecting items for OCC packing day, November 4th. The OCC Angel Tree will be in the back of the Sanctuary and will be covered with OCC tags and OCC envelopes. Here is how each is going to work.

- OCC Tags will have specific items and, in some cases, specific age groups and/or gender on the back of the tag. Most will request groups of five. Take the tag, purchase the items, and return them, with the tag attached to the OCC collection box that will be placed by the OCC tree.
- OCC Envelopes are for monetary donation to cover the expense of two things, shipping of the boxes and the purchase of two necessity items. Shipping for each box is $9 and if our goal is 150 boxes, we will need $1350 to cover the shipping of our boxes. The necessity items are collapsible water bottles and plastic silverware sets. We take for granted that we have these two items in our lives. Often OCC recipients do not have these. It will be wonderful to add these two items to all our boxes. Each OCC envelope will have a white label with direction how to donate. Donations for OCC will be placed in a jar by the OCC Angel Tree.

I am excited about OCC and all that our church will be able to accomplish. Please check out the tree and participate. I am looking forward to the excitement of our youth especially as they give! If you have questions, please contact Angie Wanzek.

Men's Breakfast/Bible Study

Men's breakfast/Bible study will resume September 15 @ 7:00am!

By the time you read this, the FMSC mobile pack will be over and children somewhere in the world will be receiving the meals we packed here at Prince of Peace. I hope to have a report of where our meals went for the next newsletter and a final wrap-up on meals packed and funding, etc.

I would like to thank all of you who donated to this mobile pack through donations and volunteering. Many of you gave way beyond what I expected. It was a lesson in trusting God for provision as there was a time when we were thinking this wasn't going to work because the funding wasn't coming in. One day I walked in the church office and found a $1000 donation in the mailbox for FMSC. This was received at a very low point when discussion the day before in continuous phone calls (8:00 AM-1:00 PM) ended with us thinking of cutting the meals down or just not having the mobilepack at all. Another check came from a family experiencing job loss and it brought tears to my eyes as they were trusting God for their future and still contributing to FMSC.

It was a blessing working with our leadership team of Gordon Hoffner, fundraising; Amber Skalsky, promotions; Martina Schneider, volunteer registration; Joan Schumaier and Rebecah Martin, hospitality. Each one took their position seriously and contributed time and effort in their role. It was a great team effort so please thank them for their contribution. Thank you to Darcee Wenning for your pep talks at a time when I needed them. Margie Lee, thank you for keeping track of the funding that came through POP members. And to my husband, Les, thank you for running the forklift all day on Saturday and for letting me spend hours on the computer and phone to make this all a success.

To God Alone Be All the Glory,
Joette Buchmann
FMSC Host Leader
